

After seeing results of direct off air measurements I would strongly encourage you to not allow Docket 03-104 see the light of day. The interference generated by this technology is a threat to national security and the emergency communications systems.

Please vote no on any further testing or implementation of this technology.

Thank you,

John Davis